

A golden scale of justice is the central focus, with its pans hanging from a vertical beam. The background is softly blurred, showing a wooden gavel resting on a surface, likely a desk or table. The overall scene is lit with warm, golden light, creating a professional and legal atmosphere.

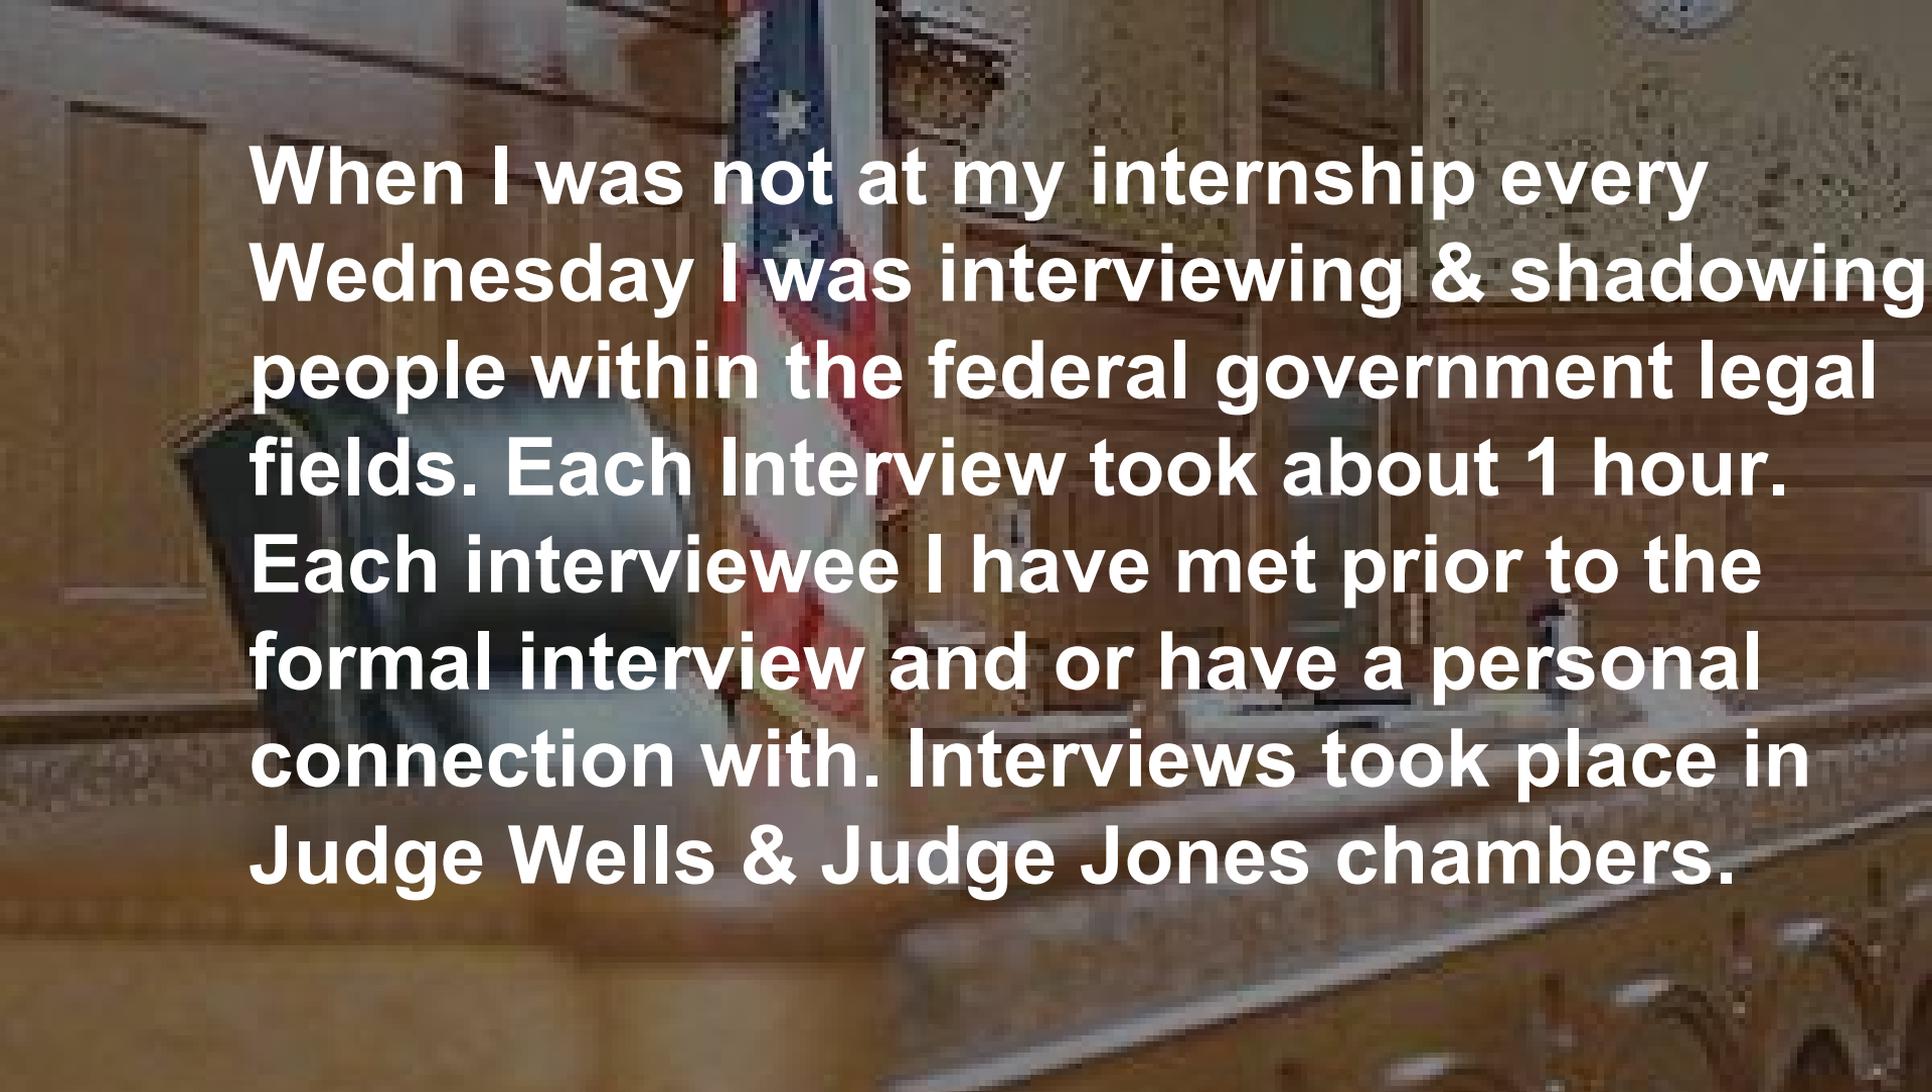

Senior Capstone

Jaidah Murray

A pair of ornate metal scales of justice, likely made of brass or silver, sits on a dark wooden surface. The scales are slightly unbalanced, with the right pan hanging lower than the left. The background is a warm, blurred interior, possibly a courtroom or library, with wooden paneling and a soft light source creating a bokeh effect.

Career Exploration:

Shadowed/Interviewed multiple people within legal fields of the federal government

When I was not at my internship every Wednesday I was interviewing & shadowing people within the federal government legal fields. Each Interview took about 1 hour. Each interviewee I have met prior to the formal interview and or have a personal connection with. Interviews took place in Judge Wells & Judge Jones chambers.

Some of the Interview questions included

Warrant swearing
Judge Wells

Educational background

Major responsibilities in their roles

Expectations in their field...

Experiences/positions that may have prepared you for their field

In what ways do you see race affecting the legal institution

ETC...

Kishara Grant

- Black
- 40 yrs
- Catholic HS in Connecticut
- King's College for Undergrad
- Temple Grad
- After grad contracted for the Department of Defense for 1 year

Federal Department of Defense Special Agent

Kishara Grant

Special Agent responsibilities/Roles

Skill sets important for Occupation:

Race in work

Done differently

Fun Fact

Advice to me

Nycole Watson

- ❖ 40's yrs
- ❖ West Philadelphia
- ❖ Juris Doctorate
- ❖ Practiced criminal, family, and civil law
- ❖ 17yrs at the office of the Public Defender
- ❖ Presided over cases as a Judge Pro Tempore in civil cases

United States Federal Administrative Law Judge
(ALJ)

Nycole Watson

Responsibilities as ALJ

What kind of person should enter the field of law

Race affecting legal institution

Advice to me

Carol Sandra Moore Wells

United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

- 67 yrs
- North Philadelphia
- West Chester Undergrad
- U. Penn
- Teacher
- Cofounder of a private school
- Criminal defender of office manager law firm
- Medical malpractice
- City solicitor government defense

Carol Sandra Moore Wells

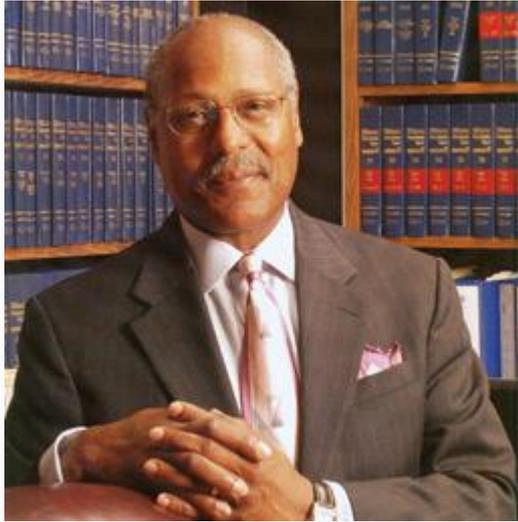

What kind of person should enter this field

Race effecting legal institution

How has job affected personal life

Advice to me

Cardozie Darnell Jones II

United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

- 67 years old
- From Claremore Oklahoma
- South Western College in Kansas
- American University Washington Law school
- French Teacher
- Assistant public defender
- Law clerk
- Appointed by Robert Kasie for Court of Common pleas (21yrs)
- Teaches at U. Penn
- Appointed by George W. Bush

C. Darnell Jones

Expectation going into field

Race personally affecting career

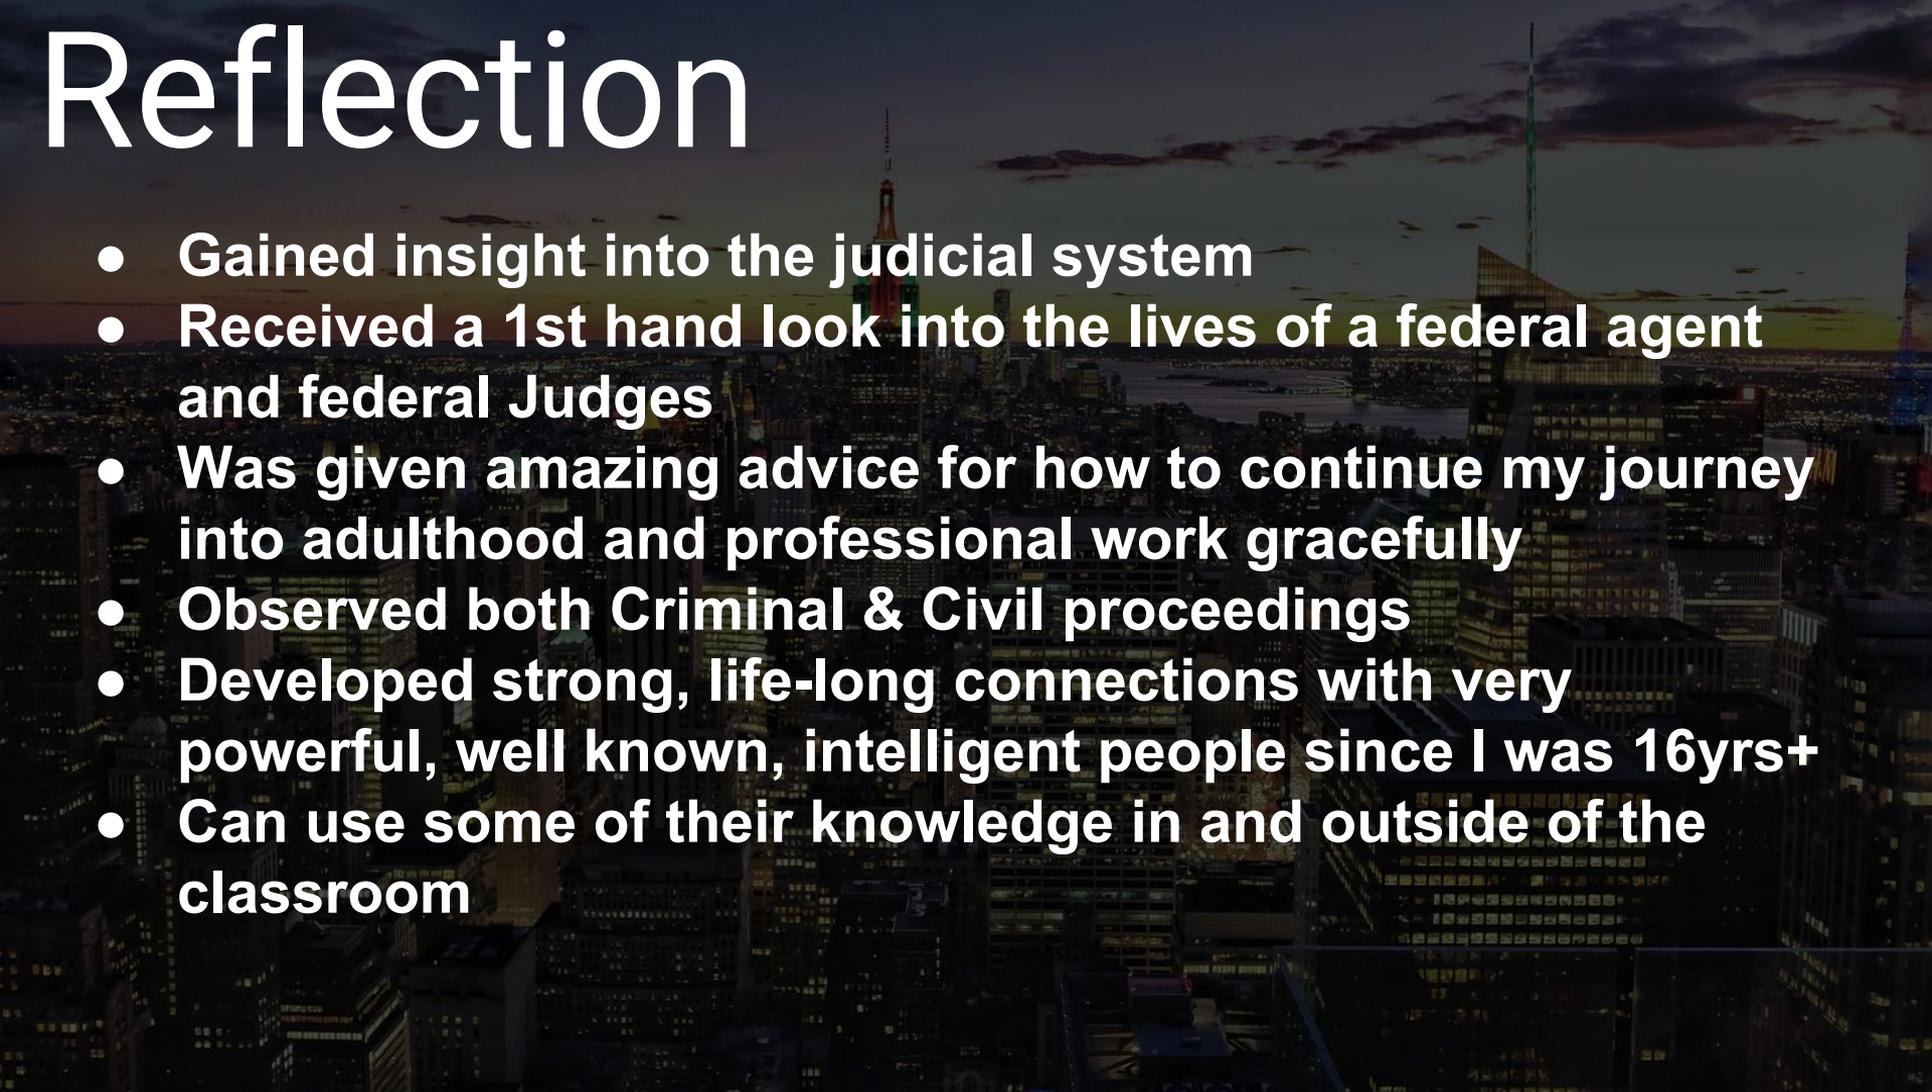

Fulfilling/difficult aspects of career

Job affecting personal life

Fun Fact

Advice of me

Reflection

An aerial view of a city skyline at dusk or dawn. The sky is dark with some clouds, and the city lights are visible. The Empire State Building is prominent in the center. A river or body of water is visible in the background.

- Gained insight into the judicial system
- Received a 1st hand look into the lives of a federal agent and federal Judges
- Was given amazing advice for how to continue my journey into adulthood and professional work gracefully
- Observed both Criminal & Civil proceedings
- Developed strong, life-long connections with very powerful, well known, intelligent people since I was 16yrs+
- Can use some of their knowledge in and outside of the classroom