

The background of the image is a gradient from dark blue at the top to orange at the bottom, representing a sunset or sunrise. A small, bright, circular spot is visible in the upper left quadrant of the sky. The horizon line is dark, with a small, dark, irregular shape on the right side.

Color Wheel

Color Wheel

This had to be done by everyone. For this project, we had to make a color wheel.

The first week we had to create an outline then paint our primary colors. We would then have to paint our secondary and tertiary colors. After that, we would add our tints to our colors.

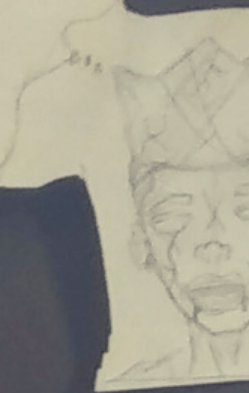

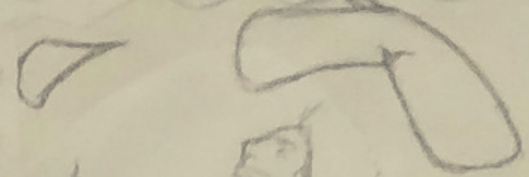

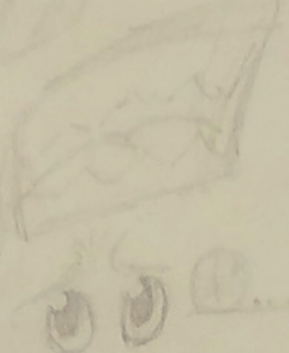

Linoleum cut

Linoleum Cut

I was supposed to make a picture on what I wanted to be linoleum cut. I would then trace it onto the print. I would then cut out the image and rub ink into. I would then use it like a stamp. I did this project because I had never heard of it before this class. I thought it was interesting and it would really test myself as an artist.

Straight from the Heart

Value, Line and Text

I chose this because I had a really cool Idea.
for the design. If it wasn't for that, I would have done mixed media.

For this project, I doodled what I was feeling every day and then chose my favorites from the doodles
and put them together.

Growth

All of these different projects have caused growth. I think It has made me more adventurous as an Artist and a person. I have also learned why I make Art and when I feel like I'm in the "Zone". I make Art because I am the creator. I design everything and give physical form to what I am feeling. This is true for making art period if you ask me.

Besides this great growth. I still have a weakness. My greatest weakness is that I run into ruts frequently. I can't create art if I'm not in my zone.

Favorites

My favorite Project had to be this. I put in a lot of effort and I was very passionate about it. The idea behind this project gave me an extra push.

Art Today

Currently, I'm not working on anything. I haven't worked on any personal projects as of late. Maybe I haven't been inspired. I usually feel inspired by Tv shows or Anime like the originals or One piece
